Panorama Holdings Grows Team; adds Two CRE Veterans

CHARLOTTE, NC- Panorama Holdings, based in Ballantyne, NC, announces two new team members. Darlene Heater joins Panorama Holdings as Managing Director and Shannon Harris as Managing Director of Development and Construction. Heater will be responsible for marketing and communication and capital fund investment. Harris will oversee development, construction management, and project coordination. Both women have worked in the commercial real estate industry for decades and have 42 years of combined industry experience.

“Panorama Holdings is strategically expanding our team with the addition of Darlene Heater and Shannon Harris,” says Jane Wu, principal and founder of Panorama Holdings. “Our development firm has enjoyed steady growth through development and investment over the last eight years. We are poised for even greater success in the future.”

Panorama Holdings is a boutique developer investing in urban core and second ring multifamily and mixed-use projects primarily in the Southeast U.S. Panorama Holdings is committed to investing in communities through development as well as creating and attracting jobs.
